Claim Objections

1. Claims 36 and 37 are objected to because of the following informalities: The claims have duplicate limitations. One of the claims should be cancelled or amended in response to this official action. Appropriate correction is required.

Double Patenting

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

3. Claims 31-41 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 31-56 of U.S. Patent No. 6,542,076. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they arrive at the same invention. As for the rejection of the independent claims, independent claim 31 of 6,542,076 presents a control device. It is inherent that a control device is a processing device, thus, the combination of claims 31, 37, and 39 provide the same limitations of independent claim 31 of the instant invention.

4. Claims 42-50 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 3 and 11 of U.S. Patent No. 6,542,076. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they arrive at the same invention. As for the rejection of the independent claims, independent claim 3 of 6,542,076 presents a control device. It is inherent that a control device is a processing device, thus, the combination of claims 3 and 11 provide the same limitations of independent claim 42 of the instant invention.
